

ReCreative Denver's ReDefine: COLOR — Event Press Release

Local Artists Lead Hands-On Activities Exploring Creative & Social Topic

For Immediate Release May 23rd, 2019

Press Contact: Jane McDonald, jane@recreativedenver.org

MIX. PAINT. CELEBRATE. Local non-profit creative reuse and art center ReCreative Denver announces the 4th event in their ReDefine series, a night of exploring color through a variety of hands-on activities and conversations with local artists, makers and community members on Friday, June 21st 2019 from 7-10pm.

Event attendees of ReDefine: COLOR will enjoy activities like Invent Your Own Color with Laura Heck Hartman, Color Conversations with JuiceBox Denver, Blinded by The Light with Moe Gram, and will be awestruck by the talents of Rudi Monterroso, a color-blind artist who fuses color & movement by creating Art in Motion. Additional details, partnerships and ticketing for ReDefine: COLOR can be found on ReCreative Denver's website.

The ReDefine series topics are chosen based on materials ReCreative Denver sees donated most frequently in order to showcase their wide range of uses and to inspire people to engage in creative reuse in their own lives. Each ReDefine event begins with an open-to-the-public brainstorm to ensure the event has buy-in and participation from ReCreative's diverse community. The ReDefine series was launched in November 2018 with ReDefine: WOOD and continued with ReDefine: PAPER, and ReDefine: FABRIC, which earned a variety of press mentions and a feature in 303 Magazine. Stay tuned for the next quarterly ReDefine event.
